

A comic remake of the 1993 French film "Cible Emouvante", Wild Target is a rich, colourful and intricately directed comedy, brought to life with wonderfully wry performances. Bill Nighy stars as a lonely hitman whose bossy mum taught him the family business and who finds his professional routine interrupted when he is drawn to one of his intended victims. A snappy, sarcastic and stimulating thriller.

