

Rango

Monday, 07 March 2011 09:50

Packed full of excitement and laughter, Rango is an animated western filmed in 3D with Johnny Depp voicing the lead character – a bored lizard who goes on an adventure to discover his true self. Brilliantly written with logical but surprising plot twists, the tension gradually builds to a climax and keeps us on the edge of our seats right to the very end. Throws down the gauntlet to everyone making animated movies in Hollywood today – Pixar included.
