

A comedy-adventure-love story between two rare blue macaws, Rio is a vibrantly animated effort that features talking animals with big, emotive eyes and a feel-good, coming-of-age story about overcoming your fears and following your heart. We've seen it all before but that doesn't mean we don't want to see it again – well worth a watch.

