

The 2011 Formula One Etihad Airways Abu Dhabi Grand Prix is more than just a race. There's a whole host of entertainment and activities that'll keep you busy before and after the races. Check out what they have on offer off the track to help you celebrate

Pit Stop Challenge

Grease monkeys can finally get a chance to try their hands at a pit stop challenge. Teams will get instruction from professionals before racing against the clock to try and become the fastest team to complete the pit stop.

A-List Snapshots

The only thing possibly more exciting than the races is the star-gazing you'll get to do while you're there. Take snaps with cut outs of Britney Spears, Beyoncé, Angelina Jolie, Brad Pitt and many more in the vending areas. To top it off, a red carpet area will be graced by faux celebrities and fake paparazzi to get you in the spirit.
